Book Will Be Replete With Photographs and Art Sketches

The 1925 Purple Patcher, the Holy Cross year book, will be distributed to the subscribers at the college the day after tomorrow. This will mark the earliest date in history that the Patcher has been off the presses. The last forms of the pages of the Holy Cross annual publication were sent through the plant of the Commonwealth Press of Worcester last week and the binding and covers of the Purple annual will be completed tomorrow with distribution taking place beginning on Thursday morning in order that the underclassmen who have subscribed may take their copies home with them.

Gordon W. Lynn, 1925, Editor-in-Chief of the Purple Patcher has been working steadily on the book in order to insure its delivery on the specified date. For the past two weeks Mr. Lynn has left for the printing plant at eight each morning to o.k. the forms that go through the presses.

To be Distributed Thursday

The Patcher, according to the report of Mr. Lynn will positively be delivered the day after tomorrow to the underclassmen. All copies of the Patcher will be distributed to all subscribers before this week is ended.

The subscription list has been well patronized and there are less than forty copies that are still available for cash subscription. Ralph P. Walsh, the business manager, Box 631, Holy Cross, will take orders for the remaining copies all next week until the supply is exhausted. Books ordered now will be delivered on payment.

Largest Patcher to Date

This Patcher which will be Volume 19 of the Holy Cross set, will run to 432 pages, the largest that has ever been attempted at Holy Cross and almost a hundred pages larger than the annual of last year. The run has been 1200 copies and there will be no extras printed after the run is completed. With the three inserts in three colors and the expensive end pieces the book will run to 437 pages inside the new style Patcher cover! It is a book that may take its place

Verdon, '26, and King, '25, Win Oratorical Contest

John J. Verdon of the junior class was awarded first honors in the annual oratorical contest, which was held in Fenwick Hall on Monday afternoon, May 25th. J. Edward King, '25, was judged next in merit.

This year, the contest was made more difficult than those held in preceding years, by allowing the speakers only two days in which to prepare their speeches. This made every speech, practically an "ex tempore" address. Mr. Verdon delivered his speech in a clear and forceful manner. His ease of posture and the eloquent effect of his address made him a winner. Mr. King, also was very forceful in his presentation, and his clear and logical reasoning gained for him the second honors. The other contestants, while few in number, were some of the best speakers in the school, and pressed the winners very closely. The subject of the contest was "The Ten Commandments and American Education."

The judges of the contest were the following members of the faculty: Rev. J. H. Dolan, S.J., Rev. J. McManus, S.J., and Professor G. Keville.

Sophs Re-elect Finn President

Hebert, O'Brien and McHugh
Elected to Other Offices of Class

After being in session for two meetings, one on Tuesday, for nominations and another on Thursday, of last week for the final elections, the class of 1927 has again chosen Mr. John Finn of Lewiston, Maine, as president.

The campaigning previous to the election was most spirited, showing forth Messrs. Finn, Robert Dwyer and Adrian Burke as the leading contenders. Up to the occasion of the election no one could hazard, as to the probable result, any conjecture based on a knowledge of the sentiments of the classmen, so that the meeting of Thursday noon witnessed the largest attendance ever seen at any of the class gatherings. The election of Mr. Finn called forth a great demonstration on the part of the men who had labored to secure his success. At the last moment William McElroy withdrew from the race in favor of Finn.

At the preliminary meeting Messrs. William Hebert and Timothy Murphy were nominated for the vice-presidency, but Mr. Murphy yielded the office to Mr. Hebert, thereby installing a day scholar in one of the four class offices. The nomination of James O'Brien as secretary of the class was voted unanimous at the first meeting.

The contest around the office of treasurer was also close, Messrs. Thomas Lennon, Joseph Hathaway and Edward McHugh being in the field. In the final accounting McHugh emerged the winner by a vote of 92, over 90 for Hathaway.

H. C. FATHERS' CLUB ORGANIZED SUNDAY

Success was stamped over the observance of the first Fathers' Day by the immediate result of the formation of a Fathers' Club of Holy Cross. The idea was suggested by one of the fathers, and was soon circulated among the crowd which gathered in the Auditorium to organize a society to keep them in closer connection with the college they knew so intimately.

Mr. McLaughlin, Brooklyn, N. Y., was called upon as temporary chairman to preside over the election. As a result of the elections, Mr. William Butler, New York City, was elected chairman; Mr. John J. Salmon, '95, Cambridge, vice-chairman; Jeffrey E. Sullivan, Fall River, treasurer; Jo-

Robert Quinn Nominated For Trip To Rome

Also Elected to Head the Resident Students' Sodality

At a special meeting of the Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality last week, Robert F. Quinn, '26, was nominated to represent Holy Cross on the pilgrimage to Rome this summer. The nomination was in the form of recognition of his work in the sodality, and shows him as the most deserving of the honor. William H. McCann, '25, was nominated as the alternate, in the event that the first named is not able to make the trip.

Tomorrow the Day Scholars' Sodality will hold their meeting at which will be nominated one man to journey over the water, and one alternate. The present arrangements call for a vote to be taken by the student body and the man receiving the highest number of votes will join the thousands who intend visiting Rome and the Pope during the Holy Year.

The pilgrimage will start in July, and the main cities of Europe will be visited en route. Historic Rome will be viewed, and all will be granted an audience with Pope Pius XIII. The money required to send a representative of Holy Cross has been donated in part by generous friends of the college, and by the students themselves, who have been solicited to give $1.00 apiece.

Officers of the Resident Students' Sodality were elected at the meeting. Much enthusiasm was evident in the balloting as was proved by the close margins of victory for a few of the candidates. Again Robert Quinn was granted a signal honor by his fellow sodalists when he voted him to head the sodality in its many activities for the coming scholastic year. Robert P. Donovan, '25, was elected first assistant, while the duties of second assistant are taken on by Leo J. Kennedy, '27. The position of secretary was voted to John J. O'Shea, '26.

The time of the elections between the Resident and Day Scholars' Sodalities will be posted later.

CHIEFS CONQUER BOSTON COLLEGE

Buck Freeman is Man of the Hour in Second Defeat of the Maroon and Gold—Carroll Allows Four Hits

A crowd of twenty-five thousand rabid baseball fans traveled to Fittion Field on Memorial Day to see the haughty Eagle of Boston College brought down from the skies, to meet defeat at the hands of Captain Carroll and his Purple warriors for the second time this season. A mighty single by Buck Freeman in the ninth with "Cowboy" Savage on second is the story of the game in a nutshell.

1928 Re-elects John W. Reilly

John A. Toomey of Worcester Voted Vice-President By Big Majority

On Friday last, in the most spirited meeting the class has yet seen, the freshmen re-elected John W. Reilly of Ossining, N. Y., as president for the coming year. Reilly won by a big majority, over Edmund J. Fitzgerald of New Haven.

The meeting was opened with a long and heated discussion as to whether the offices were to be filled on a majority or a plurality basis. The former plan was ultimately defeated, but not without great heat.

The election for vice-president resulted in John A. Toomey of Worcester being named for that office, having beaten Charles J. Stevens of Newark, N. J., by a large majority.

Everett J. Sullivan of Holyoke beat out Timothy Mannix of the same city for the office of secretary. While Eugene F. Moran of Brattleboro, Vt., defeated Anthony Stein of New York and was re-elected treasurer.

For the last three elections two ballots were held: the first open to all nominees and the second, to elect one of the two highest men of the foregoing ballot.

The nominations held on Thursday were featured by a plea on behalf of the day scholars that the office of vice-president be contended for by members of their ranks alone. When put to a vote, however, the measure was defeated, but the ultimate result showed that the class realized the justice of their cause.

The contest was charged with hair-raising tenseness, both teams battling neck and neck up till the ninth. Carroll gave four hits, one a homer by Cronin in the second and two of the others following it in that same stanza. From then on Ownie gave one hit, making the B. C. sluggers pop up and hit to the infield with monotonous regularity. McCrehan, the Maroon's premier twirler was also in superb form. He was a complete mystery to the Purple batsmen throughout the greater portion of the game, allowing them but five safe hits, and these well scattered. The miscues of his supporters accounted largely for his downfall.

Before the start of the game, Captain "Ownie" was presented with a loving cup by the members of the New Jersey Club, as a tribute to his popularity and prowess. After this ceremony, Owen climbed the mound, Foley, the Eagle lead-off man stepped into the batters' box and the game was on its way to the making of history.

B. C. Takes Lead

Boston College jumped into the lead in the second inning, when Bill Cronin caught one of Ownie's fast balls on the nose and drove it into the river. Two more hits followed this, and it appeared that Owen was faltering, but he pulled himself out of the pinch, and was never in trouble for the rest of the game.

From the second to the fifth the Purple trailed and the one run lead of the Eagles looked mighty good. In the fifth came the Maroon's first error and the tying of the score. Freeman lifted a fly to right center which Cronin could not handle. He kept going to second, and was safe on Cronin's wild throw. Buck was resting on third with two out when Carroll smashed a single sending Freeman home and knotting the count at one all.

First Pictorial Edition Published For B. C. Game

Another success was added to the list of accomplishments achieved by THE TOMAHAWK in its initial year when the first pictorial edition was placed on sale at the Boston College game last Saturday. Every TOMAHAWK that was on hand was sold, and so great was the demand that it was well nigh impossible to buy one at any cost after the game was over. The first page featured the peerless Owen Carroll in all his glory beside containing the lineups of both teams. The remainder of the sheet was devoted to the pictures of Owen's teammates as well as of the Boston College team and the two rival coaches, Jack Barry of Holy Cross and Jack Slattery of Boston College.

Such pictorial editions will appear during the football and baseball seasons of next year.

President's Message

To the Students of Holy Cross College:

Now that the present scholastic year is drawing to a close and the student life here on the "Hill" is soon to cease, it seems fitting for me to avail myself of the kind invitation of the Editors of THE TOMAHAWK to address a few words to the student-body, through the columns of our college weekly.

The year has fairly teemed with activities in the spiritual, cultural and physical life of the college and unwonted success has crowned these efforts.

The outstanding manifestations of the Faith and devotion of our students have been very remarkable, and, while being a source of great consolation to the Faculty, they have assuredly been most pleasing to the eyes of God and have brought down His graces in abundance. The large number of frequent and even daily communicants, the many visits made to the chapel, the flourishing state of our two Sodalities, the weekly contributions to the Mission Fund—these and many others are the healthy signs of the strong spirit of the piety of our student-body.

That the intellectual life of the year has been vigorous and strong is evidenced in the high standard of scholarship maintained in the different classes. The report from the Dean's Office shows a very large number of monthly testimonials awarded, exceptionally good averages in the mid-term examinations and the present partial returns

THE SUCCESSFUL DIRECTOR

The curtain has been drawn upon the activities of our splendid Musical Clubs for the present year. With their recent concert at Poli's Theatre was ended the most successful season in the annals of the Musical Clubs of Holy Cross.

To Mr. J. Edward Bouvier, director, is due in large measure the credit and praise for such a glorious season. It was he who early in the fall selected the pick of the musically talented in the student body, patiently trained them, and gradually welded one hundred individuals into one harmonious whole. A man like Mr. Bouvier is rare indeed. It is no easy task to create such a finished product as are the clubs from comparatively raw material. Yet through his constant attention and unfailing diligence the clubs are now comparable to any like organizations in collegiate circles.

To all who have had the extreme pleasure of coming in contact with Mr. Bouvier, his enthusiasm in all things pertaining to Holy Cross has been contagious. Many a musical director would content himself with the satisfaction of his own mercenary ends. But in Mr. Bouvier we have a man than whom there is no more loyal and sincere advocate of Holy Cross.

In some localities Holy Cross is even now synonymous with athletics. The glory and fame accruing to our teams has proved an obstruction to a clear vision of the real Holy Cross. The college is primarily an arts college and the screen of misconception is now being pierced. It may be truly said that the performances of our Musical Clubs have been the prime source of this revelation. They have demonstrated to thousands that at Holy Cross exists a cultural atmosphere which can not help but influence anyone who enrolls himself under her banner.

The college is fully cognizant of its debt to Mr. Bouvier. Its intention to confer upon him an honorary master's degree is richly deserved.

ADIEU

The curtain is being lowered on the scholastic year of nineteen twenty-five. The finals, now in full sway, will soon be completed, and the army of students will once more wend their way down Linden Lane, homeward bound.

There can be no doubt as to the prospect. Each and every student is eagerly anticipating the vacation and all that it promises him.

And regarding the retrospect we are happy to say that it has been a most successful year for Holy Cross in many ways. The past ten months have witnessed gigantic and rapid strides toward a better and greater college. The administration has done wonders in bringing it to the fore. The Purple athletic teams have brought great fame and glory to their Alma Mater in all branches of sport. The Musical and Dramatic clubs, the Debating team and other organizations of like nature have all done their share in spreading the name and fame of the college.

But the real success of the year depends not on what has been done outside, but on the success that has attended each and every individual's work within the walls of the classroom. The gain in knowledge which each student has achieved, the advance that has been made in the moulding of each man's character are the true criteria by which the year must be judged. And using these standards, we think that the answer to the question of the year's success can be only in the affirmative. Conscientious effort and application to the prime purpose of the school have marked the vast majority of the student body.

And thus as the year draws to a close we are strong in the knowledge that it has been one well spent. To those who will walk down Linden Lane for the last time as students we have but one word "God-speed"; to the body of undergraduates who will return in the fall we wish a happy vacation and say, "Adieu" till the hand of time swings round and we take up again our life on the Hill.

SECONDING HORACE

(If some of our contemporary men of letters were to render the sentiment in Horace, Book I, Ode XXXVIII, "Persicos odi, puer, apparatus,—")

Mr. Carl Sandburg courts the Muse:

Louie, these Persian ornaments and ceremony
Have made me exceedingly weary.
A bird singing to the flowers
Annoys me. It is like a policeman blowing
His whistle, or the cry of pigs
In our own Chicago stockyards.
The last rose is as Lonely as the North Pole.
The rattle of box cars must not Be confused with
The overtones of unlettered scholars.
You, Louie, look lovely in vermilion
Shoelaces; and I, too,
Drinking and shaded by this lavender vine.

Mr. Henry L. Mencken presents his opinion in his usual interesting style:

Young man, these ostentations of the Persians are nothing but unmitigated and undiluted pish-posh. They inundate themselves with a barrage of meaningless mummery that would aggravate the aesthetic appreciation of a policeman. This continual appetite for the spectacular is characteristic of the alfalfa districts where the wiser gentry encourage the pageant and the circus to flabbergast the dolt. Make no attempt to assume the savoir faire of those resplendent paragons of intellectual vacuity, to wit, the social leaders. The Encyclopedia of Etiquette may be a short cut to the Upper Crust but it serves me as a splendid paper weight.

Archy, the cultured cockroach, creation of Mr. Don Marquis, makes a few academic observations:

dear sir i have just returned from a short sojourn among the persians and my modest mind was quite appalled by the pomposity and grandeur of these heathens i watched them run through their formations and i thought perhaps flo zeigfeld might have given them a few points but flo says no anyway such extravagance in my humble opinion would not be tolerated in america such magnificence is enjoyed by these wine-shunning mohammedans but we americans are more sensible
we work out cross word puzzles and put a holy faith in bootleggers yours truly

STROLLING AROUND WORCESTER

(In the fashion of, and with due apologies to O. O. McIntyre.)

The wisdom of the ages seems to have descended to the bearded old patriarchs one encounters in fetid, fish-monging Water Street; the garrulous ghetto where the sons of Abraham and any stray or misguided descendants of Israel match wits all day over their greasy coppers. One old fellow listens in on a cheap radio every night and when he gets a band that isn't jazzy enough he merely tightens the earphones on his head and eats crackers.

The vernacular of back-stage is almost like another tongue. I attended a friendly little gathering of actors the other night and was indiscreet enough to wear a new suit. One of the artists, observing the fact, hailed me, not with the prosaic and plebeian: "Where'd you get the glad rags?" or, "What are you all dogged out for?"—"Well, well; got a new drop for your act, eh?" he yelled. These are jolly, little parties. A fruit punch was served with the refreshments. One fellow was careless enough to pour his into a paper cup and it ignited the whole house.

A student who had proved too susceptible to a viperous Volsteadian vintage was being arrested recently in one of those above street level tea-rooms they disport in. He remained passive with an I'll-go-quietly-no-trouble expression until the wagon appeared, then he battled furiously and refused to board the conveyance, shouting, "Aw, c'mon, offisher, le'sh be collegiate an' put the top down!"

I have just met and conversed with a manager of one of those transient sideshows which steal within the limits of the city for a few days at this time of year and withdraw in the desolate dawn leaving only a charred and scuffed lot, and several empty clothes-lines, for remembrance. This set-lipped individual claims that after years of experience he finds that there is very little difference between college professors and the African dodgers he employs. As one instance of comparison he mentioned the fact that they both use their heads to make a living.

Archbishop's Seminary,
Bubenec. tr. 299,
Prague, 19, Czechoslovakia,
April 30, 1925.

My Dear Father Wheeler, P.C.,

Your arrangement of the stamp game is working wonders. Stamps from all over the world are coming to me. The first batch was from Harry Carroll of baseball fame. I'm enclosing his letter. You ask, what do we do with the stamps? Kindness begets kindness! So many friends especially in America, have found means of helping our students in their great need and poverty in obtaining an education, so we too here in Prague have found a way of supporting some struggling priests in distant missions by sending them the money we get for old stamps and even stamps themselves that are sold in distant lands. It means work on our part—sorting, selecting, mailing, etc., but we are willing to help those who are a bit poorer than ourselves. This is our mite box—the students' mite box—they do all the detailed work.

You ask in your letter: "In one of your earlier letters to me you said something about an unknown American who gave $100 for education of a Seminarian and how much the Fathers appreciated the gift and thought it wonderful." That's true. We can and do board and educate a Seminarian for 3000 crowns a year—that's a little less than $100. Or as we sometimes do—let $50 pay for one student and the other fifty for another who can only meet half our expenses, thus often two students—sons of poor parents of the soil—are often aided. Can you unearth such an unknown or known American who can aid?

MENDEL CLUB ELECTS HAGGERTY PRESIDENT

At a meeting held on Thursday evening, May 28, Mr. Francis F. Haggerty, '26, of Hoboken, N. J., was chosen president of the Mendel Club for the year 1925 and 1926. The attendance was not considered sufficient for the election of other officers, and this was postponed until a later date.

Mr. John C. V. Corrigan, '25, of Fall River, Mass., the retiring president, addressed the meeting, speaking of the success of the lecture course which was conducted for the benefit of the members during the past year. The credit for this, he declared was due entirely to Mr. McCormack, S.J., Dean of Biology, a sentiment which the club supported by a rising vote of thanks to Mr. McCormack.

Manchester Club Officers Elected For Coming Year

The election of officers of the Manchester Club for 1925-26 took place last Wednesday noon. Mr. George Murphy, '25, the retiring president, addressed the members of the club and wished them success in their activities of next year.

O'Reilly, '27, was unanimously elected secretary. Mr. Francis J. O'Day, '28, defeated Edward J. McLoughlin, '28, for the office of treasurer.

Many Fathers Visit College

Guests at Baseball Game Saturday Afternoon

On Saturday and Sunday, the first annual observance of "Fathers' Day" was held, and over two hundred fathers arrived for a visit to Mt. St. James. The purpose of "Fathers' Day" is to afford the parents of the students an opportunity to come closer to the lives of their sons, and to associate with the members of the faculty.

On Saturday, the fathers were guests at the baseball classic of the year, and had the opportunity of seeing the famous Holy Cross nine come out victorious in a nip and tuck struggle. Following the game, supper was served in the dining halls and an entertainment in the Auditorium closed the evening.

On Sunday the fathers accompanied their sons to Mass in the Memorial Chapel, where the sermon was preached by Rev. Robert Swickerath, S.J., who chose for his subject, "The Holy Ghost and Christian Education."

Hymns were sung by the students' choir and a violin solo was rendered by Paul Diederich, '28. After breakfast, which was served at 8 o'clock, an informal reception took place in Fenwick Hall, where the fathers met members of the faculty.

Dinner was served at 11.45 o'clock, at which ex-Senator David I. Walsh spoke in praise of the "self-sacrificing parents." The day was closed with the celebration of solemn benediction in Memorial Chapel at 3 o'clock. Fathers' Day marks a new era in the annals of Holy Cross, and it is to be hoped that the observance will become an annual affair at which the faculty, the parents and the students will meet in a more intimate manner for the betterment of Holy Cross.

PROM PLANS COMPLETED

Music, Decorations and Favors Assure Great Prom—Two Ballrooms

"My Best Girl" is coming to the Holy Cross senior prom on June 16 in all her jazz splendor. She comes straight from "Copenhagen" with "Blue Eyed Sally" and she whispers in my ear that "If You Knew Susie as I Knew Susie," you'd be "Yearning" for "Some Other Day" in "Florida."

All these popular dance hits and a dozen more will be played at the senior prom by the famous Wittstein's Orchestra of New Haven, Ct., which will come to Worcester after playing the night before for the senior prom at Yale.

The chairman feels safe when he states that the orchestra will do all possible to make the senior promenade the best ever. After all, 'tis the music that makes the dance a success. The main ballroom of the Bancroft Hotel will be invaded with strains from Zez Confrey's orchestra, while Wittstein's aggregation will fill the air with the latest hits from the Roof Garden.

Decorations are to be very elaborate and the greatest of care has been taken by Mr. Dempsey, who has charge of making these added attractions, very unique.

Preparations have been made to accommodate 300 couples since two halls are to be used. Patron subscriptions are transferrable and may be used by students.

The committee is as follows: Chairman, James J. Lavery, Jr.; decorations, Walter L. Dempsey; publicity, Mark H. Callahan; patrons and patronesses, Frederick L. O'Brien; Reception Committee, Thomas A. Brennan and Carroll C. Cunningham; dance orders, James A. Murphy.

with any annual in the east. The Patcher promises to be a book of memories of the college year. After June 16th copies will be unobtainable at standard price if there are any at all procurable. As an aftermath to their year's work on the book, Mr. Lynn and Mr. Walsh gave this statement to THE TOMAHAWK:

TO RANK WITH THE BEST

"We feel assured that this Patcher of the class of twenty-five will rank with the best annuals published this year. We have attempted to live up to our two slogans: 'Make Pictures Tell the Story' and 'A Distinctive College Annual.' We are more than grateful to THE TOMAHAWK and all others who have helped us to make our dream of a great year-book for Holy Cross a vivid reality. We have given of our best in the hope that the 1925 Patcher may set a new standard for Holy Cross and the college world in general. We have aimed high that our book may remain as a standard for future Holy Cross annuals to emulate. We shall be more than pleased to aid in every way possible the staff of the 1926 Patcher. It has been a work of over a year to make our Patcher possible. It has been a work of gigantic proportions, a worry at many times, but nevertheless a task we have given our all to that we might succeed and set a new standard for the future. Now that our work is complete we await the verdict. We take the greatest pleasure on behalf of the graduating class in presenting for your approval the 1925 Purple Patcher. We are rather proud of it. We trust that you, too, will be proud of whatever result we have attained."

OWEN RECEIVES CUP FROM JERSEY CLUB

Preceding the Boston College game on Memorial Day, Owen T. Carroll was presented with a large chased silver loving cup by his fellow members of the New Jersey Undergraduate Club before a crowd of 25,000 persons assembled at Fitton Field. This cup was given in token of the esteem in which Owen is held by the men of his home state and of the service he has rendered during the past four years in bringing glory to his Alma Mater on the diamond.

During the presentation speech which was delivered by Edward M. Padden, '25, president of the club, both teams lined up between the pitcher's box and home plate while the band contributed its bit toward the impressiveness of the ceremony. Immediately after Carroll had received the cup the assembled fans signified their appreciation of his worth by a round of deafening applause.

This affair was kept a secret to everyone except those who were directly concerned with making the presentation until the actual event took place. The committee in charge consisted of Eugene J. O'Keefe, '25, chairman; William P. Verdon, '26, Thomas P. Lennon, '27, and Charles J. Stevens, '28.

REGISTRATION FOR NEXT YEAR COMPLETE

The registration of students for September, 1925, has been closed. An exceptionally large freshman class will enter Holy Cross in September, as well over three hundred applicants have been accepted. In accord with the spirit of its high scholastic standing, this is the last year for entrance by certificate alone. In September, 1926, applicants will be required to take entrance examinations.

TITLES OF SPEECHES FOR COMMENCEMENT ANNOUNCED

At the Commencement exercises on June 16, the Salutatory on "America in Vision," will be delivered by Austin J. Tobin. William H. McCann will speak on the subject, "American Ideals of Statesmanship" and J. Edward King on "American Ideals of Citizenship." The Valedictory will be "Our Pledge to America" with Walter L. Dempsey as the valedictorian.

Library Receives Gifts

During the past week two exceptionally welcome gifts of books were received in the Students' Library.

Mr. Timothy Shea, the registrar at the College, presented a set of Purple Patchers, consisting of eighteen volumes. This set is highly appreciated by the students who are most interested in observing with what rapid strides the Patcher has developed. Such volumes are in constant demand in the reading room and through this gift a long-felt want has been filled.

Paul Diederich, '28, the violin soloist of the orchestra, also made a donation to the library in the form of a set of classics.

Students And Faculty Will Banquet Team

Event to Take Place Thursday Evening at Five in Quadrangle

As announced in last week's issue of THE TOMAHAWK, Thursday, June 4th, is to be the occasion of a celebration held by the resident students and faculty of Holy Cross in honor of Owen Carroll and his team. The affair will take place at 5 p. m. in the quadrangle behind O'Kane, and is to be informal. At this hour the seniors will line up on the walk outside Loyola Hall, the freshmen in front of O'Kane, the sophomores between these two and the juniors on the boardwalk leading to Beaven. The college band will then march up Linden Lane and lead the way to the scene of the festivities with the students following in the order of their classes, the seniors preceding, and finally the guests of honor. An open air banquet will be prepared for them when they round the corner of O'Kane and it promises to live up to the standard of Purple activities both in the culinary and the oratorical line. Tom Meehan will be present to lend his contribution of merriment to the occasion, and the remaining speakers will be Cleo O'Donnell and Fr. Rector, who will bring to a close the after dinner part of the program. Following this, all will repair to the Auditorium, where a program, the exact nature of which is not as yet known, will be presented. It is expected that at this time the championship team, or at least some of its members, will be heard from, and we are assured that the evening will be one that is bound to remain for a long time in the memories of all who participate.

Arrangements for the affair are being well taken care of by Fr. Michael Fitzpatrick, S.J., Moderator of Athletics, together with John J. M. O'Shea, '25, president of the Purple Key, and William J. Crowley, '25, former sports editor of THE TOMAHAWK, who are assisting Fr. Fitzpatrick in this work.

An outstanding feature of this event will be the novelty program which is to be distributed at the banquet. The front cover will consist of a sepia photograph of Owen Carroll in action, and the contents will be such as to make it well worth preserving as a tangible recollection of Owne and his team, who have brought so much distinction to the Purple.

One of three methods will be used in the distribution of tickets for the affair. They will either be placed in the post office boxes, issued by Fr. Wheeler, or given out by the class presidents. No student will be admitted without a ticket, and all are advised to watch the bulletin board for further information in this respect.

WOODSTOCK PHILOSOPHERS ON SENIOR-JUNIOR BOARDS

The Rev. John W. Moran, S.J., of the class of '10, is among those who returned to Holy Cross from Woodstock to assist in conducting the senior-junior oral examinations, which began last Thursday morning.

The Rev. Francis Bowen, S.J., ex-'13, also returned together with the Rev. Thomas O'Malley, S.J., the Rev. Thomas Murray, S.J., and the Rev. William Kearney, S.J., all of whom came from Woodstock, Md., to assist members of the faculty on the oral boards.

DANVERS BEATS '28—PLAY 2 MORE GAMES

On last Wednesday the Holy Cross freshmen journeyed to Danvers, Mass., where they met defeat at the hands of the strong St. John's Prep nine. The game was close until the sixth inning, when St. John's gained a two run lead, to which they added four more runs in the ninth inning.

The feature of the game was the pitching of O'Connor, who was on the mound for St. John's. He held the yearlings to four hits and at the same time struck out twelve men. His occasional wildness placed him into difficulties on several occasions, but the freshmen were unable to make use of these advantages.

Doc Ryan went the entire distance for Holy Cross, and pitched a good game, but the wretched fielding of his mates made it impossible for him to hold his opponents in check. The game was lost in the field, as errors were made continually with men on bases. Johnson secured the longest hit of the game, a triple, but it proved to be of no avail, as he was left stranded on third base. The final score was St. John's 10; Holy Cross 1928, 4.

Next week the frosh play the last two games of their schedule. The first is on Wednesday, June 3, when they travel to Andover to cross bats with the fast nine of that school. On Saturday, June 6, the yearlings will play their annual game with Worcester Academy at Gaskill Field.

Springfield Undergraduate Club Chooses Its Officers

At a meeting of the Springfield Undergraduate Club held last week, officers for the coming year were chosen.

Joseph C. Fenton, '26, was chosen to fill the office of the presidency. The other officers who were elected are: Vice-President, John F. Cavanaugh, '27; Secretary, William J. O'Connell, '28; Treasurer, William A. McBride, '27.

In addition to the officers of the club the members also elected the chairman of the formal dance which will be held next Christmas. John F. Brosnan, '26, was elected to this office.

Tobin was the other Purple winner in the singles. In the doubles, McCarthy and Reardon won.

On Sunday the Holy Cross tennis team ended a successful season by beating the Leominster Country Club, 4-2. As on Saturday, the Purple won three singles and one doubles. Cullen, O'Keefe and Tobin won their matches easily, and Dodge lost only after a bitterly fought battle. Dodge and McCarthy won easily in the doubles.

Summary:

Singles, Cullen, H. C., defeated Vinal, 9-7, 6-2; Dodge, H. C., lost to Hathaway, 6-1, 15-13; O'Keefe defeated Burley, 6-2, 7-5; Tobin, H. C., defeated Sherer, 6-1, 6-2.

Doubles, Dodge and McCarthy defeated Burley and Sherer, 6-1, 6-4; Cullen and Reardon lost to Hathaway and Vinal, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4.

A glance at the completed schedule of the racquet wielders shows them to have ended the season with a very successful record. The team won six of the matches played and tied three. They met with defeat twice, once at the hands of the Yale racketeers and the second time they were overcome by the strong Dartmouth team.

Tierney Takes Intercollegiate Quarter Mile

At the intercollegiate track and field championships, held on Franklin Field at Penn University on Saturday, Captain Joe Tierney brought the Purple colors to the front and finished his four years of competing for Holy Cross in a blaze of glory. Joe came from behind to take first place in the 440 away from the cream of the college quarter-milers.

In his career as a runner under the tutelage of Bart Sullivan, Captain Joe, the lanky, smiling New Haven boy, has been a consistent winner for the Purple, and his great racing in the anchor position on the relay team has put many a contest on the credit side of the ledger of Holy Cross athletics. He seemed to have a place on the 1924 Olympic team cinched, but an unfortunate accident in a meet before the tryouts lost Joe his chance to star for Uncle Sam. The same injury, a wrenched ankle, kept the amiable captain out of active competition throughout most of the fall and winter season.

In the spring, however, the ankle had mended and Joe began to round into his old time form once again. He showed that he had come back in the Loyola meet when his running of the last quarter was in great part responsible for Holy Cross' victory over the crack relay team of Georgetown University. Then last week Joe ran away with the quarter in the New England. Saturday Joe showed himself to be the best quarter-miler in the colleges and probably in the country.

The field that lined up for the 440 was the fastest gathered this year. Among Joe's opponents were Ascher, Gage, Paulson and many other eastern and western collegiate stars. Tierney made his bid in the last forty or fifty yards and passed the leaders by a wonderful spurt, to win in the time of 47 9-10 s. This is the fastest time that has been made in the quarter this year and is within 5-10 of a second of Ted Meredith's world's record. Given ideal conditions it is not inconceivable that Joe will equal or break this record.

Leo Larivee, the indoor intercollegiate champion, also lost his chance to win the outdoor title by an unlucky accident. Leo tripped and fell at the start, losing about twenty yards. He gamely continued in the race, however, but was forced by the shaking up he received to drop out in the last lap. The winning time of 4.25 was slow and could have easily been bettered by Leo but for his mishap.

SETON HALL GAME PREVENTED BY RAIN

Seton Hall on its last northern trip, during which they encountered Boston College and Providence College, was scheduled to meet the Purple warriors on last Friday, but a steady downpour prevented the game. Davidson was carded to assume the pitcher's assignment for the Purple, and the team was prepared for a stiff battle.

The same afternoon the Tufts tennis team traveled to Worcester, and was unable to test the Chief's netmen because of the rain.

GOLFERS DEFEAT COLGATE OVERCOME BY HARVARD 7-2

Purple Mashie Artists Fall Before Undefeated Crimson Team—Both Foursomes Decided on Twentieth Green

After suffering defeat in two consecutive matches, the golf team came back into its own on Tuesday, May 26, and defeated Colgate 4-2 on the Worcester Country Club links. An even break in the singles was all the Chiefs could obtain, but playing a best ball worthy of a Hagen and a Smith, they took both points in the foursomes. Ed O'Brien playing almost par golf had a 77, the best score of the day. The summary: E. O'Brien (H. C.) defeated W. Russell (C.), 3-2; F. Brown (C.) defeated F. Keane (H. C.), 2-1; J. Bull (C.) defeated N. Fitzgerald (H. C.), 2 up; J. McGillicuddy (H. C.) defeated S. Long (S.), 2-1. In the foursomes O'Brien and Keane defeated Russell and Brown, 4-3; Fitzgerald and McGillicuddy defeated Bull and Long, 2-1.

In the last match of the season, the golf team lost to Harvard 7-2. Harvard, rated as the best team of its kind in the East, came to Worcester with an unblemished record of nine straight victories, numbering among their victims Williams and Dartmouth, the two conquerors of the Purple. It seemed impossible for the Chiefs to score a point, but with grim determination they matched shot for shot with the Crimson and only after a most bitter match was Harvard the victor. An insight into the closeness of the play may be had by considering the fact that two matches were decided at the twentieth hole. C. Hodder and P. Barnum of Harvard were the best medalists of the day, each having a 77. McGillicuddy was low for Holy Cross, having an 80. The last named and Murphy were the winners for Holy Cross. The summary in the singles: C. Hodder (H.) defeated E. O'Brien (H. C.), 3-2; C. Pierson (H.) defeated F. Keane (H. C.), 4-3; Stenison (H.) defeated N. Fitzgerald (H. C.), 1 up at the twentieth hole; McGillicuddy (H. C.) defeated Bohlen (H.), 6-5; J. Murphy (H. C.) defeated E. Cole (H.), 4-3; P. Barnum (H.) defeated Deschamps (H. C.), 6-5. In the foursomes, Hodder and Pierson defeated O'Brien and Keane, 4-2; Stenison and Bohler defeated Fitzgerald and McGillicuddy 1 up at the twentieth hole; Barnum and Cole defeated Murphy and Deschamps, 4-3.

Thereafter until the ninth, nothing stirred in the way of run-making and the game seemed destined to go into extra innings. Fate and poor support behind McCrehan had it doped out otherwise, however.

Cote, the first Purple batter in the ninth fled out. McCrehan passed Savage, and Joe Morrissey stepped up. He lifted a fly to left, and Murphy misjudged it. Nevertheless, the Eagle left fielder seemed to be under it, but it bounced from his glove and both runners were safe. Then came Buck Freeman's smash over Darling's head and Savage romped home with the winning run.

McCarthy Chosen Tennis Captain

James McCarthy, '26, was elected captain of the tennis team for next season, at a meeting of the team at the Leominster Country Club after Sunday's match.

McCarthy is a product of Montreal and came to the Hall as a sophomore from Catholic High College. He made his letter in tennis in his first year at Holy Cross and was one of the mainstays of the team. This year he has shown to even better advantage and has been a consistent point winner throughout the season.

Due to the graduation of Cullen, Dodge, Martin, Tobin and Kennelly, Captain-elect McCarthy will lead a team composed mostly of newcomers to the squad. However, there is much promising material on the Hill, and little difficulty should be found in gathering together a strong and well balanced aggregation next season.

Fitton Findings

Many of THE TOMAHAWK vendors suffered from a short leg after spending the afternoon trying to keep their equilibrium while walking on the bank in right field.

Did you notice that the sun and Bishop O'Leary arrived together?

You may not have seen the game from the top of the football stands, but you got a fine view of the surrounding country.

The pictorials were not only read, but sufficed for seats and were in great demand during the show to cover up the new Kellys.

"Well," as a B. C. fan said as he left, "It won't be long now we ought to win one game on Fitton Field in the next thirty years."

The fan that sat at the far end of the stadium was so far from the game that he did not even know that they were singing the Alma Mater.

Buck Freeman did his old reliable in the ninth and brought back memories of Fenway Park.

Those gentlemen in the stands with the green complexion were the big league scouts and the cause of their ailment was their envy of Ty Cobb's claim on "Orful" Ownie.

After the way he handled the crowd yesterday, the cop at the gate should be transferred to Fifth Avenue and Forty-second Street.

In the ninth inning when the winning run crossed the plate it was difficult to tell the fathers from the sons and many a father has a sore back from the slaps of some over-zealous fan.

Those alumni that could not get to the game must have had sore ears from the ear phones after nine innings, but they had nothing on the folks on the bank at freshman field for they all had sore eyes.

COLGATE AN EASY MARK FOR CARROLL IN ITS SECOND DEFEAT

Carroll Circuits—Freeman and Gautreau Each Make Two-Bagger—Freeman's Shoe String Catch is Sensation of Game

The Colgate nine met defeat for the second time this season at the hands of Ownie Carroll and his mates, on last Wednesday, at Fitton Field. Owen never exerted himself, using a slow twister and a change of pace that had the boys from Hamilton eating out of his hands. Scholtz, the Colgate twirler, was no mystery to the Barry-men, and they pasted his offerings for a total of twelve hits and ten runs.

At the start of the game it looked as if the Chiefs were destined to have a hard fight on their hands. In the very first inning Colgate scored a run on two clean hits off Carroll, while the Purple team failed to hit safely in their half. After this rather dubious beginning, however, the situation changed and "Suicide Alley" went to work in earnest on the Colgate pitcher.

In the second frame the Holy Cross boys chalked up five runs on three hits and an error. It happened in this wise. Freeman doubled and Frankie Farrell was safe at first when Scholtz made a wild heave on his intended sacrifice bunt. McEntee grounded out. Doherty hit to the short stop and Freeman was safe on the play at home. Carroll went out, but Farrell and Doherty scored a moment later when Gautreau smashed a two-bagger along the third base line. Walsh walked and Cote's texas-leaguer brought "Doc" and "Tweet" across the plate.

This batch of markers sewed up the game, inasmuch as the New York State boys were helpless as far as making hits and runs was concerned.

Twenty-five Honorary Degrees To Be Conferred At Commencement

Men Prominent in All Professions to be Honored With Various Degrees at Graduation Exercises—Mr. Bouvier to Receive A.M.

With the graduation of some 240 students and the conferring of an equal number of degrees, Holy Cross College will also bestow upon men, who have proved their ability in their particular vocation in life, some 25 degrees.

It has always been the custom of Holy Cross to recognize and honor the signal work of any man who has served the world well. In past years there have been men who have likewise been honored by degrees, but this year in the bestowing of so many degrees, Holy Cross has attained a new height.

H. C. FATHERS' CLUB ORGANIZED SUNDAY

seph E. Underwood, '89, Worcester, secretary.

It was then decided to elect a board of directors to aid the regular officers in the work of the new society. The board was to include the officers and five directors, distributed somewhat geographically. As a result, Mr. Harry C. Mills, East Orange, N. J., Mr. Thomas McDermott, Elm-hurst, L. I., Mr. William J. Larkin, Worcester, Mr. Owen J. Eagan, Somerset, Mass., Mr. Michael J. Healy, Rome, N. Y., were elected to form the board.

Fr. Dinand, S.J., Fr. Earls, S.J., and ex-Senator David I. Walsh were elected honorary members of the society, and undoubtedly will do much to further its aims.

The immediate aim was to effect the organization of the club, and consequently no business was accomplished. However, the members assessed themselves a small tax to give financial impetus to its worthy existence. Yet it was the idea of equipping the old gymnasium that seemed to loom up as the first step of the society.

However, the real aim aside from what physical advancement the society might give the college, is that every father might always be connected with Holy Cross even after his son's graduation, that the literature of Holy Cross might always reach him, that retreats for the fathers might be given at Holy Cross as well as other gatherings of more informal nature.

The 240 charter members of this society that is bound to grow by leaps and bounds were photographed on the chapel steps by Father Ahern, S.J.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

of final examinations indicate an excellent general standard of study. To one of our freshman classes has come the distinction of having passed the best intercollegiate examination among the twenty-seven freshmen classes in the competition. The college monthly—The Purple—has kept up its reputation for literary excellence and for its very timely and interesting articles. The appearance of THE TOMAHAWK, the weekly chronicle of college events—has met with most favorable comment and each issue is eagerly awaited by Faculty, Alumni, students and friends. Our Debating Societies have had a very successful year in intercollegiate debates, and the novelty of a radio-debate between Boston College and Holy Cross proved to be a most interesting, as well as instructing experiment. A word of appreciation to our Musical Clubs is most deserving for the remarkable quality of their many performances and especially for the great successes scored at New Rochelle, Montclair and New York, during the Easter vacation—under the able and devoted direction of Mr. J. Edward Bouvier.

The athletic teams have met with very great success in football, track, basketball, tennis, golf and baseball, and the Faculty share with the students in congratulating the Athletic Association for sending upon the various fields of sport such worthy representatives to uphold the reputation of the college for true clean sportsmanship.

The earnest co-operation of the students is requested in spreading the knowledge among their parents, Alumni and friends of our many needs, but especially of the most urgent and pressing necessity for a new Gymnasium. Holy Cross is deplorably lacking in adequate equipment in this department. A clubhouse and gymnasium, forming a single unit, would naturally become the community center of the college life, give the necessary accommodations for visiting teams, provide for Alumni rooms, etc. Hence, we should begin now to agitate this question and strive to hasten the day when Holy Cross shall possess a clubhouse and gymnasium worthy of a collegiate institution.

With in coming scholastic year we hope to see the new library rise upon its foundations. We look forward with great eagerness to the time when the doors of our Library will be open to welcome our students, for we realize what an incentive this essential building will be in promoting the spirit of study, reading and research.

At this opportune time, I cannot but express to the entire student-body my grateful and heartfelt appreciation of the splendid spirit of co-operation and loyalty that has been so clearly evidenced all during the year. The best traditions of Holy Cross have been worthily upheld by the present students, and the Faculty are not insensible to this greatest of blessings in college life, viz., that harmony and mutual understanding between Faculty and students that bring out the best efforts in one's own individual development and at the same time make for happiness, progress and loyalty to the ideals for which Holy Cross must ever stand.

Before closing, may I be permitted to take this opportunity of expressing in the name of the college, our deepest gratitude to the present senior class for its splendid testimonial of loyalty to Holy Cross, in taking out an Endowment Life Insurance Policy of $50,000, made payable to the college on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the graduation of the class—in 1950.

Wishing for one and all a very happy vacation, I remain

Very sincerely yours,

JOSEPH N. DINAND, S.J.
